

I Will Not Be Afraid

Though Long May Be the Night

Gordon L. Haws

Thoughtfully (76 bpm)

Piano

1. I - will not be a - fraid though long may be the night,
2. When night is dark-est and I feel I am a - lone,

5

Pno.

I know the Lord will come and He will make things right. Though my eyes can - not see Him, I
I know He's there and He will help me bear my load. Though some-times o - thers hurt me, And

8

Pno.

know that He's right there, My Lord, my Re-deem-er, my Sa - vior and my Friend.
try to quench my light. His pre - sence is near me to help me through the night.

11

Pno.

3. I know the morn' will come and light will fill my life. I know God's power is strong and
4. If I stay by His side He'll heal what they have done. With Him be - side me, I know

14

Pno.

He will make things right, No pow'r of dark is strong-er Than His a-maz-ing might, No that the bat-tle's won, At times when I am ner-vous, I know to hold on tight, To 17

Pno.

pow-er of dark-ness Can stand s-against His light. 5. I will not be a-fraid though reach for His Hand and He'll guide me to the light.

20

Pno.

long may be the night, I know the Lord will come and He will make things right. Though

23

Pno.

my eyes can-not see Him, I know that He's right there. My Lord, my Re-deem-er my 26

Pno.

Sa-voir and my Friend.